MEMO ENDORSED

RE: United States v. Eric Boothe
11-cr-912 (JFK)

Dear Judge Keenan,

This letter is submitted on behalf of my client, Eric Boothe. As the Court is aware, the terms of Mr. Boothe's appearance bond currently require home incarceration. Mr. Boothe respectfully requests that the Court modify the terms of his bond to allow him to leave his home for employment and/or any programs that Probation believes would be beneficial. Mr. Boothe would of course continue with electronic location monitoring and would abide any curfew set by Probation.

U.S. Probation, by Probation Officer Sandra Osman, and the government, by A.U.S.A. Christopher J. DiMase, have both been informed of this request and neither takes a position on it. Probation does note that Mr. Boothe is doing well.

Respectfully submitted,

Meredith S. Heller

Cc: A.U.S.A. Christopher J. DiMase (via ECF)
U.S.P.O. Sandra Osman (via email)

The Government and Probation Office having no objection, Defendant's request is GRANTED. Defendant shall continue to be monitored by electronic location monitoring, and he must comply with any instructions or additional requirements requested by Probation, such as a curfew.

SO ORDERED.
